

Brion-Meisels Clip 1

[These facilitator notes provide commentary and ideas that might be helpful as you use these raw video clips with other educators.]

We notice that several of the exemplary instructors we filmed for IM make time at the beginning of class or students to share announcements of events that are important to them and are related in some way to the topic at hand. We note here how many students bring in announcements, how supportive Brion-Meisels is of these events, and how enthusiastic and supportive peers seem to be. How much do you think this builds community? Do you think it is worth the class time it uses up?
