

Villarreal Clip 1

[These facilitator notes provide commentary and ideas that might be helpful as you use these raw video clips with other educators.]

One thing we notice from the first minute of V's class (Villarreal prefers students call her V or Dr. V) is her authenticity. You know who she is, what she cares about, and what she is thinking. She touches on where the class is now and what's going on at this moment in the semester. She also talks about "playing with curriculum" and telling the students "a little bit about the school and place that made me who I am."

We also find it worth noting that her clicker isn't working, but you almost don't notice it given how she just takes it in stride and incorporates it into her teaching. ("If you joggle the batteries, it usually works.")
